

Fundraising Champion Role Description

Summary

Love meeting new people and passionate about helping to ensure everyone has the right to a home?

Housing Rights are seeking enthusiastic volunteers to help us to fundraise so we can deliver enhanced services to people in housing need. Our dedicated Fundraising Champions team work alongside our Communications team to raise awareness of our cause and help out with various flag days and events we run throughout the year.

This is a perfect opportunity for people who want to help our work but need flexibility as they don't have to time to commit to a regular volunteer role. It may also be ideal for those who are unavailable during working hours, and the tasks undertaken will vary dependent on your availability.

You can do as little or as much as you like!

Location

Our main office is located in Belfast (The Skainos Centre, 239 Newtownards Road, Belfast BT4 1AF), although flexibility is required as fundraising activities take place province-wide.

Time commitment

Flexible

Tasks

- Assisting with bucket collections in various locations
- Communicating Housing Rights cause and work to members of the public
- Assisting to identify fundraising opportunities for Housing Rights
- Assisting with the planning, organisation and set up of various fundraising events ran by Housing Rights throughout the year. Roles will vary dependent on the event!
- Opportunity to receive support to organise or help to run an event to raise funds for the work of Housing Rights

You should be:

- Enthusiastic
- Friendly
- Reliable
- Have the ability to speak to and engage with members of the public
- Have an interest in the work of Housing Rights

Additional Information

You will receive an induction or briefing dependent on the nature of the role. You will have a designated volunteer supervisor and out of pocket volunteer expenses will be reimbursed within Housing Rights expenses guidelines.
