COMPLEX NEEDS POINTS

20 POINTS

You may be considered for complex needs points if you are referred by Health & Social Services or the Housing Officer feels that your circumstances fit the complex needs criteria.

RUNNING TOTAL

PRIMARY SOCIAL NEEDS FACTORS

20 POINTS EACH , MAX 40 POINTS

If you are awarded points under categories 1,2,3,4 or 7 you must also be considered under the homelessness legislation. You can only be awarded one of either points 1-3.

1*	Where the applicant, or a member of the applicant's household is experiencing or has experienced violence or is at risk of violence including physical, sexual, emotional or domestic violence or child abuse OR
2*	Where the applicant or a member of the applicant's household, is experiencing or has experienced harassment, including racial harassment, and there is a fear of actual violence OR
3*	Where the applicant, or a member of the applicant's household, is experiencing or has experienced fear of actual violence for another reason, and the applicant is afraid to remain in his/her current accommodation
4	Where the applicant, or a member of the applicant's household, is experiencing or has experienced distress/anxiety caused by recent trauma which has occurred in the applicant's current accommodation
5	Where, in the opinion of Social Services, there is a need for rehousing to prevent the applicant, or a member of the applicant's household, going into care
6	Where Social Services recommend that the applicant, or a member of the applicant's household, move to larger or more suitable accommodation to enable him/her to become or continue to be a foster parent
7	Where families with dependent children are living apart because of overcrowding or tension in previous accommodation, or where living together would result in children living in unsuitable accommodation
8	In circumstances analogous to those listed in 1-7 above

OTHER SOCIAL NEEDS FACTORS

10 POINTS EACH , MAX 40 POINTS

You will not be awarded Other Social Needs points for a situation that has already earned you Primary Social Needs points, for example if you have been awarded Primary Social Needs for harassment you will not be awarded Other Social Needs for the same issue.

1	Where the applicant, or a member of the applicant's household, is experiencing neighbour disputes and rehousing is likely to resolve the situation
2	Where the applicant or a member of the applicant's household, is experiencing or has experienced harassment, but there appears to be no fear of actual violence
3	Where the applicant, or a member of the applicant's household, is experiencing or has experienced burglary or vandalism and there is an inability to cope at his/her current accommodation
4	Where the applicant, or a member of the applicant's household, has been awarded staying or weekend access to dependent children and his/her current accommodation is unsuitable to facilitate this access
5	Where the applicant's current accommodation is too expensive
6	The applicant and members of the applicant's household are unable to maintain current accommodation
7	A member of the household who will not be moving with the applicant has a medical condition that is exacerbated by having the applicant in his/her home
8	The applicant or a member of the household has experienced a recent bereavement in the current accommodation and requests rehousing and the same is likely to be beneficial
9	The applicant is unable to reside with his/her partner for reasons beyond their control and there are no dependent children
10	The applicant is socially isolated in the current accommodation and rehousing would be of clear benefit
11	The applicant must move to take up a new job or full time course of study and does not currently reside within a reasonable travelling distance
12	The applicant needs to live in an area to give or receive support

RUNNING POINTS TOTAL

OTHER SOCIAL NEEDS FACTORS

13	The applicant needs to be rehoused to be nearer to family for provision of childcare to assist employment
14	The applicant needs to move to be nearer to a hospital, day centre, specialised unit of education or other essential facility which would be of clear benefit to the applicant or a member of the household
15	Alternative accommodation has been recommended by Social Services to meet the specific needs of the applicant or a member of the household because: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• an extra room is needed for specialist medical equipment OR• an additional room is needed to accommodate a live in carer OR• the applicant's current accommodation is particularly unsuitable
16	The applicant's household contains a child less than 10 years of age and they are living in accommodation above ground floor level
17	In circumstances analogous to those listed in 1-16 above

ADDITIONAL POINTS WHICH NIHE COULD AWARD

List the points which you haven't already been awarded that you think are applicable to your circumstances. If you're not sure which points you have, ask the Housing Executive to supply you with a full breakdown of your points. Write to the Housing Executive setting out any points you feel you are entitled to and explaining why you should receive these points. It helps to include any evidence which may support your claim.
